You may be aware that, National Safety Council of India (NSCI) which has a base of over 8500 members, is a leading resource centre for Safety Health and Environment technical information, training, safety promotional materials, and consultancy services such as OSH audits, risk assessment, safety awareness surveys, safety rating etc. It regularly organizes National and International Conferences / Seminars and also operates prestigious NSCI Safety Awards Schemes to recognize OSH performance and achievements of the companies and safety professionals. NSC also has an active co-operation with international organisations like ILO; UNEP; JISHA, Japan; Asian Disaster Preparedness Centre, Bangkok, Thailand; Korea Industrial Safety Association; German Social Accident Insurance Agency (DGUV) Germany; American Industrial Hygiene Association, USA; National Safety Council, USA and the Safety Councils of other countries.

Occupational Safety & Health (OSH) is increasingly getting global attention. Engaging in OSH activities is beneficial in the interest of the safety of human life and property. It helps everyone to participate in promoting a safety culture in the society, leading to happier and safe life.

We are happy to inform that the NSCI competent authority has approved to introduce a new membership category for enrolling the students in colleges & professional institutions as members, so that students can participate in OSH activities, learn OSH and contribute for safety culture building. It will help equipping the students with adequate technical knowledge in safety and enhancing their skills which will further help in performing the jobs in industries in a safe manner.

We take pleasure in inviting the students pursuing a full-time degree or a professional course to become a member of the National Safety Council of India.
